

The following must be attached to an application for the issuance of the permanent residence permit for a family member of a person with recognised subsidiary protection:

- a photograph of the foreigner or reference number from the clipboard for electronic photographs;
- documentary evidence proving family ties and the identity of family members, if they possess them;
- statement of all the facts about the family members with whom they wish to be reunified, in particular their personal names, dates and places of birth, address of residence and information about where they are accommodated at the time of the submission of the application; if the person with subsidiary protection does not have documentary evidence to demonstrate family ties or the identity of family members, statement of the reason why they cannot obtain documentary evidence to demonstrate family ties or the identity of family members;
- written consent with which the applicant allows the competent authority to, in order to verify family ties and the identity of family members, forward the information about the family members to international organisations working in the field of migration, if the person with subsidiary protection does not possess documentary evidence to demonstrate family ties or the identity of family members;
- proof of sufficient means of subsistence, when the application for the issuance of a permanent residence permit for a family member is submitted after the expiry of the 90-day period after an extension of subsidiary protection;
- proof of adequate health insurance that covers at least emergency medical services in the Republic of Slovenia, when the application for a permanent residence permit for a family member is submitted after the expiry of the 90-day period after an extension of subsidiary protection;

In the procedure, the authority will obtain the following information under compulsory powers:

- from the civil register of the Republic of Slovenia on the birth or marriage of the foreigner in the territory of the Republic of Slovenia, or on other information, if it is entered in the civil register of the Republic of Slovenia,
- about the status of the applicant;
- from the criminal record, the record of final judgements or decisions on misdemeanours kept by the Ministry of Justice in the Republic of Slovenia;
- from the record on misdemeanours kept by the competent authorities in the Republic of Slovenia;
- final indictments filed and non-final judgments issued by the competent court;
- from the records kept by the tax authority on overdue unpaid tax obligations and on tax offences that are classified as confidential tax information.

Information regarding personal data protection:

- the personal data from the form is processed for the purpose of issuance of a residence permit in accordance with Article 93 of the Foreigners Act;
- the authority has the right to obtain other data as well, if this is in your interest and you have given your consent or if this is permitted by law. You can withdraw your consent from the authority at any time;
- if the required conditions are met, you have the right to access your personal data, the right to restrict processing and the right to object to processing;
- you have the right to check the accuracy of your personal data that is entered in the residence permit and the right to request for the data to be altered or, if the required conditions are met, its deletion.
- The controller stores your data in accordance with Article 115 of the Foreigners Act;
- the authorised person of the controller for the protection of personal data at the Ministry of the Interior can be contacted at the e-mail address: dpo.mnz@gov.si;

- if you are of the opinion that your data is being processed illegally, you can file a complaint with the Information Commissioner.